

Hello Family,

Dr Ziad Al-Qishawi from the St. Albert Opticians is offering free eye consultation to residents in Long Term Cares in the Edmonton area. He is available to come to Venta Care Centre for a free eye consultation with interested residents on Thursday April 11, 2024, at 11am.

Interested family members should please reach out to the social worker by Friday April 5th, 2024, by phone or email. Please find social worker's information below.

Please note that only the consultation is free of charge, resident or family will cover the cost of the prescriptions.
